"This volume's usefulness for teachers and students of Mahfouz as well as for undergraduate and graduate courses on the Arabic novel and surveys of Arabic or world literature is beyond question."

—Adnan Haydar
University of Arkansas

Naguib Mahfouz is the Arab world's best-known writer and the most important chronicler and analyst of twentieth-century Egypt.

This first volume in the Approaches to Teaching World Literature series to focus on an Arab author or Arabic literature discusses Mahfouz's background, influence, and critical reception and offers resources and insights for teaching his work.
